§ 1260.52

of pending litigation, NARA will inform the requester of this fact and of the requester's appeal rights.

- (f) If NARA determines that a requester has submitted a request for the same information or material under both the mandatory review and the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA), as amended, the request will be treated as a request under the FOIA, unless the requested information or materials are subject only to mandatory review.
- (g) In every case, NARA will acknowledge receipt of the request and inform the requester of the action taken. If additional time is necessary to make a declassification determination on material for which NARA has delegated authority, NARA will tell the requester how long it will take to process the request. NARA will also tell the requester if part or all of the requested information is referred to other agencies for declassification review, subject to section 3.6 (a) and (b) of EO 12958 as amended.

§ 1260.52 What are agency responsibilities after receiving a mandatory review request forwarded by NARA?

- (a) The agency must make a determination within 180 calendar days after receiving the request or inform NARA of the additional time needed to process the request.
- (b) The agency must notify NARA of any other agency to which it forwards the request in those cases requiring the declassification determination of another agency.
- (c) The agency must return to NARA a complete copy of each referred document with the agency determination uniformly and conspicuously identified to leave no doubt about the status of the information and the authority for its continued classification or its declassification. If a document cannot be declassified in its entirety, the agency must return to NARA a copy of the document with those portions that require continued classification clearly marked. If a document requires continued classification in its entirety, the agency must return to NARA a copy of the document clearly marked.
- (d) The agency must also furnish, for transmission to the requester, a brief statement of the reasons the requested information cannot be declassified and a statement of the requester's right to appeal the decision, along with the procedures for filing an appeal. The agency must also supply for transmission to the requester a contact name and title and the address where the appeal must be sent. Additional information on appeals for requesters is located in 36 CFR part 1256 and in Appendix A to 32 CFR part 2001 (Article VIII).

(e) If the agency fails to make a decision on the mandatory review request within one year of the original date of the request, the requester may appeal to the Interagency Security Classification Appeals Panel (ISCAP).

§ 1260.54 What is the appeal process when a mandatory review request for Executive Branch information is denied?

- (a) If an agency denies a declassification request under mandatory review, the requester may appeal directly to the appeal authority at that agency. If a final decision on the appeal is not made within 180 days of the date of the appeal, the appellant may appeal to the ISCAP.
- (b) If requested by the agency, NARA will supply the agency with:
- (1) Copies of NARA's letter to the requester transmitting the agency denial; and
- (2) Copies of any documents denied in part that were furnished in sanitized form to the requester.
- (c) The agency appeal authority must notify NARA in writing of the final determination and of the reasons for any denial.
- (d) The agency must furnish to NARA a complete copy of any document they released to the requester only in part, clearly marked to indicate the portions that remain classified. NARA will give the requester a copy of any notifications from the agencies that describe what information has been denied and what the requester's appeal rights are.
- (e) NARA will also notify the requester of the right to appeal denials of access to the Interagency Security Classification Appeals Panel, Attn:
